To: Mayor Rick Sollars

From: Chief of Staff Robert Dickerson

Date: January 25, 2019

Subject: Last date of employment

Please accept this letter as my official notice of resignation from my position as Chief of Staff, effective April 1, 2019. I recently received an offer to serve at the Vice President level of a Commercial and Real Estate Development Company, close to my residence in the City of Detroit. After careful consideration, I realize that this opportunity to work in the private sector very close to home, as well as the ability to regularly work from home, is too exciting and convenient for me to turn down.

It has been a pleasure working for you, along with the entire City of Taylor team of outstanding employees over the past three years. The City of Taylor is in great hands with you and your leadership team, and without a doubt, the city is both financially and professionally positioned for continued accelerated growth, successes, and opportunities.

I would like to help with the transition of my duties and responsibilities so that the leadership team and city as a whole continue to function smoothly and effectively after my departure. Over the next eight weeks, I am available to help recruit and train/coach my replacement and I will make certain all current tasks and projects are completed and or transitioned over to a capable leadership team member.

Mayor, thank you again for the opportunity to work for City of Taylor. I wish you all the best and I look forward to staying in touch with you, as well as many others I met while working for the city.

Sincerely,

Robert Dickerson
